OLLI AT WVU

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at West Virginia University, known as OLLI at WVU, provides programs and educational opportunities designed for adults 50 and over.

OLLI at WVU is a membership organization affiliated with the School of Public Health at WVU that recognizes the unique experiences, capabilities, and wisdom of mature members of the community. OLLI at WVU emphasizes the sharing of ideas through peer learning, member participation, and collaborative leadership.

During four terms each year, OLLI at WVU offers courses, lectures, seminars and field trips in such areas as music, literature, art, science, politics, nature, history, health, medicine, and economics. Live drama, movies, and special interest groups add to the choices.

Courses are developed and taught by volunteers from the community who are passionate about their topics, avocations, and interests, and love to share their ideas.

Free from the pressures of tests and grades, this is learning simply for the joy of it.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR BOARD PRESIDENT

Bon Hiver, everyone! For those of you that have not escaped to warmer climes, your OLLI is still here offering a menu of stimulating and fun classes to get you through those dreary, drab, cold winter days. Now I am an artist, so I have a gentler perspective on winter when I look out my windows or drive someplace. Yes, the leaves have fled the trees, the green is gone and has been replaced by mauve, grays, bareness, and sometimes, when the sun comes through the bare trees, the trunks look black. But it is such a peaceful time of year, a great time to curl up in front of the fire (I hope you have one), go to a concert, see a show or come to OLLI classes and keep up with your friends.

We have arts, we have literature, we have science and issues in aging, travel and music, crafts and food. Our group in Charleston is growing and presenting their own menu of enticing classes, so wherever you live, north or south, join us, get a cup of joe and celebrate the season of peace and mauve!

- Jim Held, President

A MESSAGE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

Seven months into my tenure at OLLI at WVU, I have to repeat that I am honored to be here, to be a part of this dynamic community of curious, adventurous, creative, talented, intelligent, and kind people. As I continue to meet more and more members, I am impressed with the depth of knowledge and life experiences you all bring to OLLI.

Many of you have heard my story, at the annual meeting in June or through the weekly bulletins. But I want to hear yours. What brought you to OLLI? What has OLLI done for you? Share a favorite OLLI memory or experience. Perhaps hearing your stories can help me, and OLLI, provide our members with an even better experience.

And to be honest, member stories can be quite helpful in recruiting new members and fundraising. As we strive over the next few years to achieve sustainability, you can help OLLI grow by sharing your story. Storytelling connects people and research shows that creating personal connections inspires and motivates action. We could quote numerous studies and employ multiple statistics showing how lifelong learning benefits older adults and contributes to healthy aging. But hearing about a personal experience, whether from a friend or a stranger, is much more likely to draw a potential new member to OLLI.

OLLI at WVU is a membership organization that depends heavily on member involvement at all levels to remain a healthy and vibrant program. You can help by sharing your OLLI story. Besides, who doesn't like a good story? Email me at jascenna.haislet@hsc.wvu.edu. Or better yet, let's share a cup of coffee.

- Jascenna Haislet, Director

The Bernard Osher Foundation

The Bernard Osher Foundation seeks to improve quality of life through the support of lifelong learning institutes such as OLLI at WVU. The Foundation was founded in 1977 by Bernard Osher, a respected businessman and community leader. The Foundation has now funded 119 Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes on campuses of colleges and universities from Maine to Hawaii. Funding for OLLI is contingent upon membership growth goals, so membership matters. To learn more about The Bernard Osher Foundation, please visit their website at www.osherfoundation.org.

OLLI AT WVU MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to curious adults interested in programming designed specifically for those over 50, who want to engage socially and intellectually with their peers. An individual must be a member - full, term or trial - of OLLI to take classes.

In addition to the opportunities to discover a new passion or rekindle an old interest, share a love of learning with peers, and meet new people, members also enjoy such benefits as:

- a weekly e-news bulletin
- access to ongoing special interest groups
- discounts on travel and various events around the community
- financial assistance for membership fees
- free parking at the Mountaineer Mall

Annual membership runs July 1st through June 30th each year. Members may participate in unlimited courses, activities, and interest groups throughout the year or within a specific term, based on membership level.

Membership Levels

Full Member: $100

In addition to unlimited access to OLLI activities throughout the year (July 1 to June 30), full members have voting rights.

Term Member: $50

Term members may participate in unlimited courses and activities within a specific term as determined by the OLLI calendar.

Trial Member: $25

Individuals who have not previously been a member of OLLI can join at this discounted rate for one term.

Discounts are also available for our volunteer instructors. Contact the OLLI office at 304-293-1793 for more information or to see if you are eligible for a Faculty or Honor Roll discount.

Scholarships

While OLLI at WVU tries to keep fees to a minimum while providing the highest quality experiences to our members, we recognize that membership fees may be out of the reach of some individuals. Therefore, scholarships are available. To apply, ask for a confidential application at the OLLI office or fill out the form on our website at www.olliatwvu.org.

HOW TO REGISTER FOR COURSES

WINTER 2017 COURSES

THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

---

Basic Watercolors*

Susan Hall Witt

4 Sessions (Term members)
Year Round (Full members)

Classroom: MMAG

Tuesdays, January 24 - February 14, 1:30 - 4:00 p.m.

This course will explore how watercolors work and will apply that knowledge to painting greeting cards and small works. No experience is needed and no supplies are necessary for the first couple of lessons. Participants from previous sessions are welcome as we will expand our knowledge and apply it to more advanced work.

About the Instructor: Susan Hall Witt is a stained glass and watercolor artist. She teaches stained glass for the community schools program and continues to take classes and workshops to improve her skills.

Born to be Wild

Clyde Richey

clydehurst01@gmail.com

4 Sessions

Classroom: B

Fridays, January 27 - February 17, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Many wild animals popular in mainstream culture are among the endangered species. Loss of habitat due to human activity is a big reason. Projects are underway to protect these species but recovery is a difficult road. This course will feature a series of documentaries on the plight of mountain gorillas, wolves, whales, pandas, and lions, each followed by discussion of current research and what else can be done to protect these animals.

About the Instructor: Clyde Richey has viewed numerous early outstanding American films, as well as movies set in other countries and cultures. He has done college-level teaching and has written and directed outdoor historic productions.

Bruce Springsteen is 67!

Barry Wendell

wendell.barry@aol.com

4 Sessions

Classroom: A

Thursdays, January 26 - February 16, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Bruce Springsteen has been a rock star since 1973. He has a new autobiography out called Born to Run. If you are not familiar with his music, this is a chance to learn.

Recommended Read: Born to Run, Bruce Springsteen

About the Instructor: Barry Lee Wendell is four weeks younger than Bruce Springsteen and has been a fan for 40 years. Barry has taught about Motown, The British Invasion, The Beach Boys, and The Hits of 1960, 1961, and 1962 at OLLI. He holds a Bachelor of Arts from Johns Hopkins University in Humanistic Studies.

Correcting Wrongful Convictions

Nathan Maxwell

nathan.maxwell@mail.wvu.edu

1 Session

Classroom: A

Wednesday, February 8, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Scenarios which have led to people being convicted of crimes for which they are actually innocent will be presented, including false confessions, bad investigative science, and corruption. The instructor will discuss the difficulties faced by attorneys who attempt to help exonerate the wrongfully convicted and share examples of successful exonerations and how they were achieved.

About the Instructor: Nathan Maxwell is a lawyer and a graduate of the University of Chicago Law School. He is a Fellow in the West Virginia Innocence Project at WVU College of Law.

Duke Ellington: An American Phenomenon, Part 2

Leo Horacek

leo_horacek@yahoo.com

1 Session

Classroom: A

Thursday, February 9, 10:00 - 11:50 a.m.

Duke Ellington made significant contributions to American music and culture through his band, his piano playing and his songs. In everything he did, he showed a special originality with a style reflective of his personality, his race and of mankind. The class will involve examination of words and music of his best songs, hearing representative recordings of his band, and a deeper look at his personality.

About the Instructor: Leo Horacek is Professor Emeritus of the School of Music at West Virginia University.

The Face(s) of a Pop Culture Medium:

Television and the Older Adult

Jim Wilkie

jwilk9718@gmail.com

4 Sessions

Classroom: A

Saturdays, January 28 - February 18, 10:00 - 11:50 a.m.

University of California, San Diego, researchers have recently found that older adults are watching more television than the young. Yet, advertisers and network executives seem to largely ignore this audience. Indeed, elders are underrepresented and sometimes negatively portrayed on the pop culture medium. The purpose of this class is to examine what TV says about aging in popular culture. In particular, discussions will center on the role TV plays in shaping identities. TV in general will be discussed and programs will be examined such as the evening news, common/uncommon cable show portrayals and such alternative programming as the now syndicated, The Golden Girls.

About the Instructor: Dr. Jim Wilkie has taught journalism, speech and mass media for 30 years at the university/college level. His main interest is in the role that communication plays in society.

History of Old Quebec City

Douglas Estep myheritageadventures@gmail.com
1 Session Classroom: A
Monday, January 23, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

A brief history of the founding, settlement, and development of Quebec as the capital and epicenter of French culture, language, and military power in North America will be presented. The clash of French and English ambitions and the resulting birth and development of the United States will also be discussed. Time will be devoted to a presentation of a tour to Old Quebec City open to OLLI members scheduled for June, 2017.

About the Instructor: Doug Estep graduated from WVU in 1983 and works for the Department of the Treasury. He is also the owner/operator of Heritage Adventures and Coal Country Tours and was recently featured in the PBS/American Experience documentary The Mine Wars. Estep has taught courses for OLLI at WVU and for Shepherd University and has conducted several tours in partnership with both universities.

MonRiver New Horizons Band*

Lindsey Williams and Krissie Weimer
lindsey.williams@mail.wvu.edu
4 Sessions (Term members) Year Round (Full members)
Classroom: B
Tuesdays, January 24 – February 14, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

The organization's motto, "It's never too late," means that one is never too old to make music. OLLI New Horizons Band members are adults of all ages who once played band instruments, but did not continue later in life. Instruments became dusty, life continued, yet the love of music persisted. Now these musicians have an outlet and a way to make music again. There are also opportunities for those who've never played a band instrument and for current members to try new instruments.

Course Materials: Essential Elements Method book, music stand. Participants must provide their own instrument.

About the Instructor: Dr. Lindsey Williams joined the Music Education faculty at West Virginia University in fall 2015 where he founded and directs the MonRiver New Horizons Band. Prior to his appointment at WVU, he was the director of the Roeland Park (KS) New Horizons Band from 2006-2015. He has presented on music with senior adults and lifelong learning at international, national, and state conferences. Krissie Weimer is a Ph.D. candidate in Music Education at Penn State. She earned her B.S. and M.M. degrees, both in Music Education, at West Virginia University.

The Music of John Prine

Joe Paull pau1921@comcast.net
1 Session Classroom: A
Tuesday, January 31, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

John Prine has been writing songs since the mid 1960s. Although his songs have been recorded by others, most fans enjoy hearing and seeing him perform his own compositions. The class will use a recent concert DVD and CDs as the basis of a discussion of Prine's music.

About the Instructor: Dr. Paull has been a teacher in the public schools and in the graduate school at WVU. He has taught many OLLI courses.

The New Yorker Discussion Group

Margot Racin, Kristen Cooper
mbracin@comcast.net
6 Sessions Classroom: A
Mondays, January 23 – February 27, 10:00 - 11:50 a.m.

Come join us to discuss a range of topics from recent issues of The New Yorker. Members of the group choose articles, fiction, and topics to be discussed each week. All viewpoints welcome! A subscription to The New Yorker is strongly recommended.

About the Instructors: Margot Racin is retired after 30 years in the WVU English Department. She has coordinated these discussions in previous terms and looks forward to even more stimulating discussions. Kristen Cooper is a publicist with experience in the publishing industry at magazines including The New Yorker, Better Homes & Gardens, Travel & Leisure, and House & Garden.

Opera as Drama

Byron Nelson bnelson2@wvu.edu
4 Sessions Classroom: A
Tuesdays, January 24 - February 14, 10:00 - 11:50 a.m.

The course provides critical introductions to the live opera performances of the Met in HD series (at the Regal Theatre in Granville) and the Pittsburgh Opera (Benedum Center) in the winter and spring, 2017. The operas are placed in the context of the great operatic tradition, from the late 16th Century to today. There will be musical and literary analyses of the scores and libretti, with appropriate illustrations from recent and historic productions. Members of the class need not actually attend the performances to enjoy the discussion.

About the Instructor: Byron Nelson taught English (Shakespeare, earlier British literature and the Bible as Literature) at WVU for forty years. His scholarly specialties included Shakespeare's plays and the radical and orthodox religious movements of the English Renaissance.

THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Pearl S. Buck's The Good Earth

Melanie Page, Chad Proudfoot, and Jay Cole
mcpage@mail.wvu.edu

2 Sessions Classroom: A
Tuesdays, January 24 & 31, 3:00 p.m. - 4:50 p.m.

Following a screening the classic film, The Good Earth, based on Pearl S. Buck's Pulitzer-Prize winning book of the same name, the instructors will lead a discussion of the work and the author.

About the Instructors: Dr. Page is the co-chair of the Pearl S. Buck advisory board, a collaborative effort between the Pearl S. Buck Birthplace Foundation, WVU, and West Virginia Wesleyan to preserve the works of Ms. Buck and bring attention to this WV treasure. She is joined by Dr. Jay Cole (WVU Vice President for Federal Relations and Senior Advisor to the President) and Chad Proudfoot (4-H Program Coordinator, Cultural Resource Specialist, WVU Extension and Historic Preservation Officer, WVU Jackson's Mill).

Traditional Circus Music

Wally Venable wallace.venable@mail.wvu.edu
1 Session Classroom: B
Tuesday, February 7, 3:00 p.m. - 4:50 p.m.

Between 1880 and 1980, American circuses had their own distinctive forms of music. This class will present circus band and calliope music recordings and videos along with stories about the music, composers, and the shows themselves. Some of the music will be from sources several decades old, and some will be played by present day "reenactors."

About the Instructor: Wally Venable is a member of OLLI's New Horizons Band. He has arranged many traditional circus tunes for his crank organ.

Virginia Woolf's A Room of One's Own Barb Howe and Carolyn Nelson

barbara.howe@mail.wvu.edu
4 Sessions Classroom: B
Wednesdays, January 25 - February 15, 10:00 - 11:50 a.m.

In her extended essay published in 1929, Virginia Woolf is on a quest to discover why so few women in the past have been writers. What has been so different about the experiences of men and women? Why have women been so poor and uneducated? Why have they not written great literature as men have? We will follow Woolf in her search for answers to these questions and see if we arrive at different conclusions. This is the seventh offering in Barb and Carolyn's exploration of women, literature, and history. Please read the essay's first chapter for the first class.

Course Materials: A Room of One's Own, Virginia Woolf

About the Instructors: Dr. Nelson taught women and literature at WVU, while Dr. Howe taught women's history.

Writing Retreat*

David Ornick david.ornick@ymail.com
4 Sessions (Term members)

Year Round (Full members) Classroom: B

Thursdays, January 26 - February 16, 10:00- 11:50 a.m.

Having a hard time finding time to work on your life story, novel, poetry, journal, or letters? Come write in a quiet, comfortable, supportive environment. Bring paper, pen, laptop, etc. There will be at least 1.5 hours of quiet writing time each session. At the last session, if there is interest, we will stay an extra hour or so to talk about what we've been working on and to share (optional) some of our writing.

About the Instructor: Dave Ornick is a graduate of WVU in music education. He encourages the preservation of personal and family stories. He is currently documenting his many unconventional relatives.

2 Sessions                                      Classroom: A
Thursdays, January 26 - February 2, 3:00 - 4:50 p.m.

A creative mind can lead to new inventions, new products, and new businesses. Learn about the activities that you can do that will enhance creative thinking. The activities will be both physical and mental, designed to rediscover the creative process. Innovation and entrepreneurship opportunities and pathways will be discussed.

About the Instructor: Carrie White, MBA, JD, Ed.D, is the Director of LaunchLab, at West Virginia University. White has owned, operated and sold two small businesses located in the Pittsburgh area. She is also a certified Yoga instructor.

Foundations for Investing

 Brian Kurcaba    trina.browning@edwardjones.com
1 Session                                      Classroom: A
Thursday, February 23, 3:00 - 4:50 p.m.

This class will discuss the rules for investing: develop a strategy, choose quality investments, diversify portfolio, invest for the long term and focus on what you can control.

Mutual funds are offered by prospectus. A prospectus contains more complete information, including investment objectives, risk, and charges and expenses as well as other important information that should be carefully considered before investing or spending money. Your financial advisor can provide you with a prospectus, or visit our website at www.edwardjones.com.

About the Instructor: Brian Kurcaba is a lifelong resident of Morgantown and graduated with an MS in Industrial Relations from WVU. He has 12 years of experience as a financial advisor for Edward Jones.

Outsmart the Scammers

Brian Kurcaba    trina.browning@edwardjones.com
1 Session                                      Classroom: A
Thursday, February 9, 3:00 - 4:50 p.m.

Incidents of fraud are on the rise and scammers' tactics are becoming more complex. This presentation will help give attendees the information they need to outsmart the scammers. During the program, we'll discuss certain red flags that may indicate a fraudulent encounter, resources individuals can turn to in the event they or a loved one are targeted, and steps attendees can take now to help protect themselves and loved ones.

About the Instructor: See biography under Foundations for Investing.

Protect Your Most Important Asset: Your Family

Rebecca Burton                      rburton@summitbrokerage.com
1 Session                                      Classroom: A
Tuesday, February 21, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

This class will explore long-term care solutions, examining the significance of protecting one's family and assets in case extended care is needed. Part II will address the importance of end-of-life care conversations with loved ones. Types of advance directives in West Virginia will be reviewed. Advance directive documents will be available and assistance in creating new or reviewing current documents will be provided to attendees interested.

About the Instructor: Rebecca Burton, a WVU graduate, is a licensed social worker who worked in senior housing for more than 26 years. She has a passion for facilitating discussions of end-of-life wishes and assisting people with advance directives. Burton has worked with the WV Center for End-of-Life Care to provide this service. She currently works at Summit Brokerage Services in Fairmont, where she specializes in long-term care solutions that help to smooth life transitions.

Tax-Free Investing: It's Not What You Make, It's What You Keep

Brian Kurcaba    trina.browning@edwardjones.com
1 Session                                      Classroom: A
Thursday, February 16, 3:00 - 4:50 p.m.

This course is designed to help inform individuals of the benefits and considerations of choosing investments that offer tax advantages. Participants will learn tax-advantaged investments and their features, tax-free investment returns vs. taxable investment returns, three ways to purchase municipal bonds, and tax-free investing that can help you achieve your goals faster.

Unit trusts and mutual funds are offered and sold by prospectus. You should consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information. Your Edward Jones financial advisor can provide a prospectus, which should be read carefully before investing. Edward Jones, its financial advisors and employees, cannot provide tax advice. Consult with a qualified tax professional regarding your specific situation. You should consider a number of factors before making an investment decision, including your unique goals, risk tolerance and financial circumstances.

About the Instructor: See biography under Foundations for Investing.

SCIENCE AND MATH

Dangerous Earth

Richard Smosna                      rsmosna@wvu.edu
8 Sessions                              Classroom: B
Mondays & Wednesdays, January 23 -
February 15, 3:30 - 4:50 p.m.

Geological processes affect every inhabitant of Earth every day. Because Earth is a dynamic planet, many of these processes have risks associated with them, negatively affecting human interests, activities, and health. To understand these processes and assess the risks and impacts, we turn to geology, the scientific study of Earth. Dangerous Earth concentrates on two particular geological hazards, earthquakes and land subsidence.

About the Instructor: Richard Smosna is an emeritus professor at WVU who has taught geology for over 35 years, presenting courses in environmental hazards, history of Earth, oceanography, and petroleum.

From Nothing to Something - Time

Anthony(Tony) Tomkowski              atomkows@wvu.edu
1 Session                                  Classroom: A
Monday, January 30, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Come take a trip through the Geologic Time Scale. We will go through the known history of planet Earth, 4.5 billion years. Find out, among other things, how scientists calculated the age of the planet, how mineral deposits were formed, how the dinosaurs became extinct, how glaciers impacted West Virginia, and how this area was once the bottom of a lake. Emphasis will be placed on WV as geologic time relates to it.

About the Instructor: Tony Tomkowski taught this material for 27 years as part of his Forestry 140 course, "West Virginia's Natural Resources," in the WVU Division of Forestry & Natural Resources.

Leonhard Euler: Forgotten Giant of Mathematics and Science

Donald Gray                              donald.gray@comcast.net
3 Sessions                                  Classroom: A
Mondays, January 23 - February 6, 3:00 - 4:50 p.m.

Leonhard Euler (1707-1783) is considered to be one of the four greatest mathematicians in history. He was the leading physicist of the 18th century, an influential educator, and an admirable person. He overcame many difficulties, including losing his sight. This course will emphasize his life and times. Memories of high school math will be adequate to appreciate a few of Euler's discoveries.

About the Instructor: Donald Gray taught fluid mechanics and related courses for 30 years at WVU and for seven years at Purdue. He won several teaching awards and has just completed the second edition of his fluid mechanics textbook. He wrote more than 100 technical papers and reports.

Paleoindian Archaeology - Wyoming 1964

Eb Werner                                  ebwerner@frontier.com
1 Session                                  Classroom: B
Thursday, February 2, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Hell Gap, Wyoming, was a site occupied as a summer camp for plains hunting for a period of more than ten thousand years. Several new Paleoindian cultures have been discovered there. The site has operated as a field course in archaeology but in the early years (1960s) about half the personnel were volunteers of varying experience. Techniques used at the time will be discussed and findings shared.

About the Instructor: Mr. Werner has worked in various aspects of geology, with a preference for field work, for more than 40 years, and has volunteered to help with various archaeology digs.

Watching the Great American Eclipse

Stephen McCluskey      stephen.mccluskey@mail.wvu.edu
1 Session                                  Classroom: A
Wednesday, February 1, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

If you haven't seen a total solar eclipse before, your opportunity to see this awesome event is this year on 21 August 2017, when an eclipse will cross the continental US from Oregon to South Carolina. This course will discuss the nature and causes of solar eclipses, the circumstances of this particular eclipse, the expected weather, and will provide some suggestions for watching this remarkable event.

About the Instructor: Steve McCluskey is a retired professor of history of science at WVU. He has done research in the history of astronomy but saw his first total solar eclipse in 2013. He is now arranging a gathering for his extended family to see the 2017 eclipse.

Women in Science

Carole Boyd                                  Classroom: A
2 Sessions                                  Tuesdays, February 7 & 14, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Are there women in science other than Marie Curie? This class will answer that question, describe the lives and accomplishments of several women, and discuss why we know so little about women of science.

About the Instructor: Dr. Boyd received her undergraduate degree and graduate degree in medicine in Michigan before coming to West Virginia and WVU to teach and practice Pathology and retiring as Professor Emerita from the School of Medicine. She has enjoyed teaching OLLI courses for a number of years.

TRAVEL AND ADVENTURE

Sculptures in the Desert

Donald Gray and Kay Gray donald.gray@comcast.net
1 Session Classroom: B
Monday, January 30, 10:00 - 11:50 a.m.

Since 2008, Ricardo Braceda, a self-taught Mexican-American sculptor, has installed more than 129 large steel sculptures in Southern California's Anza-Borrego desert. We will recount our trip to view them, touching on the natural history and climate of the desert, the biography of Braceda, and his magnificent sculptures of extinct and contemporary birds and mammals, dinosaurs, historical persons, and fantasy creatures.

About the Instructors: Donald Gray is a retired engineering professor. Kay Gray describes herself as Jack-of-all trades and master of none. She has been doing crafts of every type nonstop since birth.

Wines of the World III: The Rest of the "Old World" Wines

Bob Craig ccraig@hsc.wvu.edu
1 Session Classroom: A
Wednesday, January 25, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Spain and Portugal are home to some of the best bargains in red wines and wines that can challenge the best of France and Italy, in addition to producing some of the best fortified wines, Sherry and Port. Germany and Austria are home to some of the world's most elegant white wines. There are many other areas where the wines are excellent, including Greece, Israel, and Hungary.

Class fee: $15.00 for wine tasting. Wine will be provided by Ron Porter, Wine consultant, Kroger, 500 Suncrest Town Center.

About the Instructor: Craig has traveled to many wine producing areas of Europe and has developed a strong interest in knowing more about the grapes and the wines, of those regions. He has taught extensively at OLLI since retiring from the faculty of the WVU Health Sciences Center.

TEACH FOR OLLI AT WVU

OLLI at WVU draws volunteers from all walks of life to teach a wide variety of courses for adults 50 and older. Many OLLI instructors are current and retired teachers, university professors and administrators, business and civic leaders, and other professionals from the community who wish to share their knowledge and passion.

Experience the joy of teaching free of tests and grades.

OLLI classes are offered simply for the joy of learning. Members are enthusiastic, engaged, and eager to learn.

Courses are offered during Fall, Winter, Spring, and Summer terms in the areas of the Arts and Humanities; Economics, Business, and Retirement Planning; Health and Wellness; Hobbies and Interests; Science and Math; Technology and Training; and Travel and Adventure. Courses may be from one to six sessions. Most sessions last about two hours.

Most courses are held in the Mountaineer Mall in Morgantown, although OLLI has a branch in Charleston as well.

Interested in teaching for OLLI? Visit our website at www.olliatwvu.org or call the OLLI office at 304-293-1793 for more information.

Catch the Bus to OLLI

Kelli LaNeve

Wednesday, January 11, 1:00 - 2:50 p.m.

Mountain Line Transit offers instruction on how to ride public transportation in Morgantown. This course will teach you how to read and understand bus schedules, plan a trip, signal a bus, pay fares, purchase tickets and how to ride safely and confidently. The participant will learn various smart-phone applications and social media applications to assist in determining the location of Mountain Line Transit buses. Individual Transportation Plans (ITPs) can also be developed that will prepare you for your upcoming trip.

About the Instructor: Kelli LaNeve has been the Mobility Coordinator with Mountain Line Transit since 2013 where she is working to develop programs to ease the mobility barriers for residents of Monongalia County. She has considerable experience working for social service agencies providing assistance to individuals and families in need. Currently, Kelli is working to implement new programs to our area including Volunteer Driving Programs, Vanpool Programs, Travel Training and Veteran Transportation Programs. She earned a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Education from West Virginia University.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Registration and Attendance Matters

Please be respectful of the time and efforts of our volunteer instructors. It is important to register for the classes that you wish to attend. If you are unable to attend a class for which you are registered, please notify the instructor or the OLLI office.

Classroom Temperature

To save energy, the classroom thermostats are set to specific temperatures. Please dress accordingly to help make your class experience comfortable.

Weather and Holiday Policy

OLLI members are personally responsible for their own safety and must exercise good judgment when making travel choices in inclement weather. When West Virginia University, Monongalia or Kanawha County Schools are closed for inclement weather, OLLI activities are cancelled. County school delays do not affect OLLI activities. The decision to cancel activities is at the discretion of the Director when a county calls for early dismissal due to the weather. The decision to cancel weekend activities due to weather is at the discretion of the instructor. Registered participants will be notified. The OLLI office observes WVU holidays.

Media Releases

Media releases are available and kept on file in the OLLI office. Please be sure to fill one out and let us know if you do not want to be shown in OLLI photographs and media.

Liability Disclaimer

Individuals acknowledge and assume any and all risk associated with participation in OLLI at WVU activities. OLLI at WVU makes no representation regarding the appropriateness of any activity for an individual. OLLI at WVU disclaims any and all liability for each individual's participation in any activities. If a course involves physical activity, participants are responsible for wearing the proper attire and using the proper equipment (if applicable). It is highly recommended that participants consult their physician before participating in physical activity.

Non-Discrimination Statement

West Virginia University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution. The University does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, disability, veteran status, religion, sexual orientation, color, or national origin in the administration of any of its educational programs, activities, or with respect to admission or employment.

OLLI: A CASE FOR SUPPORT

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at West Virginia University is dedicated to providing the highest quality educational, recreational, and social opportunities possible to our members. For many years, we have been able to offer 200 or more classes, workshops, lectures, discussions, and field trips annually.

In order to sustain and grow the program, your financial support is needed. A solid base of financial support from the membership demonstrates a healthy commitment to a program and instills confidence in new members, donors, and potential funding sources that OLLI at WVU is worth their investment. In other words, if those closest to it do not support it financially, why should others invest in it?

Although OLLI at WVU is tremendously fortunate to have a wealth of passionate, qualified members, friends, and others willing to volunteer their time and expertise as instructors, we still have many other annual operating expenses necessary to offer such a program. These include classroom and office rental and maintenance; utilities, technology and internet access; staff compensation; marketing and community outreach; and course materials. Financial support from WVU and earnings from the Osher Endowment cover about 45% of these expenses. Our current membership levels cover another 15%. Therefore, the remaining 40% must be raised through donations, gifts, and grants.

Over the next few months, you will begin to see and hear more in the weekly emails, in your classes, and through dedicated campaigns, about giving to OLLI at WVU. With a variety of giving options, members are able to choose the gift that works best for them.

If you would like to make a donation today, you can add it to the enclosed course registration form, visit our website at www.olliatwvu.org, or call the OLLI office at 304-293-1793.
